

California Department of Fish and Game SEASONAL JOB BULLETIN

Position: Seasonal Aid

Program: Wildlife Management and Water Quality Program

Location: Headquartered in Monterey, California

Salary: $9.76 – 10.35/hour

Duration: 12 – 18 months

Final Filing Date: Ongoing

Typical Tasks

Assist staff in the Wildlife Management and Water Quality Programs. Conduct field studies or surveys by assisting staff collecting wildlife colon and fecal samples for a food safety study (E. coli and Salmonella). Trapping and mist netting mammals and birds. Work hunter check stations during the hunting season. Work with Wildlife Services biologists collecting samples for health surveillance program. Collect samples from hunters or at drop-off points and ship samples overnight to the analytical laboratory. Operate Fish and Game vehicles. May perform administrative tasks such as data entry and management, filing, purchasing, and vehicle maintenance. Some weekend and holiday work will be mandatory. Emphasis of work will be in Monterey, San Benito, and San Luis Obispo Counties.

Minimum Qualifications

- Possession of a valid California driver license
- Education equivalent to high school diploma

Desired Qualifications

- College course work in Biology, Fisheries, Ecology, or Zoology or equivalent
- Wildlife capture and handling techniques
- Computer skills

Contact: Andrew G. Gordus, Ph.D., Staff Environmental Scientist

California Department of Fish and Game
1234 East Shaw Ave., Fresno, CA 93710
(559) 243-4014 ext 239

To Apply: Send a standard state application form to the above contact person. (STD 678 available at www.spb.ca.gov/employment/employment_app_adobe.htm). A résumé may also be submitted. Please include a cover letter, college transcripts, and three references with phone numbers.

Applications will be pre-screened and those with the most suitable background will be invited to an interview.

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer offering equal opportunity to all regardless of sex, race, religion, ancestry, disability, or sexual orientation.